

Angelo Tadeo

Junior Application Developer

Profile

Dynamic and motivated professional with a diverse background in Business Process Outsourcing (BPO) and Junior Application Development. With nearly three months of experience in BPO operations and hands-on involvement as a Junior Application Developer at iRely PH, I bring a unique blend of skills in both operational efficiency and technical expertise.

I am now seeking a challenging career opportunity with a forward-thinking company in the field of Information Technology. With a passion for innovation and problem-solving, I aim to leverage my technical skills and abilities to drive impactful solutions. My approach is marked by creativity, adaptability, and a commitment to delivering projects with excellence.
